ACCOUNTING AND MANAGEMENT AIDED BY COMPUTER
INSTRUCTIONS TO EXAMINERS

Before a candidate starts, The chief examiner and all the other examiners should :

- Make sure that all starting conditions contained in the questions are in place and that the software installed is functioning normally
- Prepare and test on the machine a marking guide for all the papers

Examiners should follow in permanent manner the candidate so as to evaluate them in a continuous manner and in respect of the marking scheme contained in the question paper.

The appendixes eventually attached to the questions are marked on the spot and the final mark of the candidate agreed in the examination room and written on the mark sheet. No marking exercise should take place after practical's.

NB : Examiners should evaluate candidates individually on their computer. In no case an examiner should not evaluate more than one candidate at a time. There are four (04) papers. Each candidate choose his/her own paper by balloting and has 30 min. to realize his/her work

At the end of the evaluation process, examiners withdraw all the question papers so that candidates should not leave the examination room with them.

No comment or discussion should take place among candidates leaving the examination room and those still waiting for their own turn.

Examiners are authorized to back with examination questions only at the end of the last day of practical's to avoid all communication with the other centers.
