QUESTION 1: Translate into French.

John arrived home late that night. He looked tired and hungry. He went straight into the bathroom and took a bath. Then he was served a meal which he ate without appetite. Soon after, he went to bed. He slept like someone who had spent the whole night drinking.

The day before, he had gone to Douala early, in the hope of returning home in time. Unfortunately, he had left Douala in a seventy-seater bus, at about 10 p.m. The journey was smooth until mid-way, when the vehicle had a flat tyre.

That was when his problems began. Some passengers started asking the driver to sell the bus and buy good tyres. Others declared that he would be held responsible if thieves attacked them. The repairs took quite some time. After that, the travellers entered the bus and continued their journey.
