QUESTION 1.

TRANSLATE IN TO FRENCH

Attah was the son of a businessman. He lived in a magnificent house. His father was rich and loved travelling. In his father's absence, Attah would invite his friends to play cards and tell interesting stories. Here is one of them:

"A lonely prince went to stroll in their garden. On his way, he saw a kitten. It had a wound on its ear. He picked it up in his hands and went on. Minutes later, he met a beautiful girl. She was poorly dressed and was crying. As she saw the young man, she shouted: "Oh! My cat! Give it back to me." Surprised, the Prince handed the cat to the girl with a smile. Then in a soft voice, he said to her: "Now that you've found your friend, you've also found a husband. Stand-up and follow me. So, goodbye to loneliness."
