Despite the challenges that we encountered during our tour, the trip was fantastic! We had visited many great places and seen breath-taking views. Just before departure, my club-mates and I bought some great gifts from the Curio Market for our family members and friends back home.

As the bus started off, our Club Patron asked, "Would you like to come back to Southern Province for another educational tour?"

"Definitely!" Everybody shouted with excitement.

Indeed this was one of the most memorable experiences in my life.
