40 LEARNING ABOUT RELIGION

Mr Sikabbubba lives in Gwembe Valley. His parents and all his relatives lived there too.

One day, Mr Sikabbubba was telling his two grandchildren how he enjoyed life with his grandparents. He said, "My grandchildren, you missed a lot, you were born late. Long ago, we used to go and pray at a shrine. We could take sacrifices there and ask for help from our ancestors. If we needed rains, we could ask for it and it could come before we reached our homes. But nowadays, if you pray for something it does not come there and then."

The eldest grandchild said, "But you had no religion because you had no books like the Bible to follow." The other one said "you did not have good shelters like a church where to pray from, that was wrong," Mr Sikabbubba answered them and said "My children, we had a religion we believed in. We believed in a Supernatural Being beyond human powers. For sure, we never had a written scripture like you have the Bible, but we were told stories by our grandparents (fore fathers) which were transmitted from generation to generation. We were very comfortable with the wonders of nature around us. We saw and felt the power of the Supernatural Being that was all powerful and might, that is why we could go to the mountain or under the tree to worship and offer our sacrifices there.

Above all the Bible and specific places of worship for us were not important. There was nothing wrong with our worship because we were given what we asked for from our ancestors."

41 FREEDOM AND COMMUNITY

Likezo lost her mother at the age of five. The mother was never got married to Likezo's father. She just got pregnant when they were both still at school.

The father to Likezo married another woman when he completed his training as a male nurse. The wife insisted that Likezo could come and stay with them. Likezo stayed with the step-mother happily without any regret.

When she qualified to Grade 8, she refused to go to the school where she was accepted since it was a day school. She said she wanted to be in a boarding school where she could be free from parents. The parents struggled to find a place at boarding school for her. She got a place and finished her Grade 9 there. She said she did not want to go back to the same school in Grade 10. Again they looked for another school. This time the parents wanted her to be a day scholar because they received a report from the Deputy Head that Likezo had started going out with boys at school. They took her at a nearby day school for close monitoring. Likezo reported there for three weeks and stopped going to school. She said she could only go back to school if her parents found her a place in a boarding school. She continued to say that she wanted freedom of choice.

Luckily she completed her Grade 12, but friends initiated her in Satanism. Immediately she completed school, she got pregnant and gave birth to a baby boy. The father of the baby ran away from her. He never gave any support to the baby. She is now staying with her parents and all the support is just coming from them. She was accepted at a college but could not go because the baby was too small. People around her were just complaining about her bad behavior. Likezo is now in problems.
