Question 1 : TRANSLATION (80 marks)

My shirt is blue. I bought it two weeks ago from a shop. As I was eating with my niece, she threw some oil on the sleeve when I was washing my hands. I got angry for it was too expensive.

Her mother learnt of the matter only half a month later. She looked very furious and scolded her. Since she was a rich business lady, she immediately gave me not just the amount which she could guess but two times the amount.

By then, I was as poor as a church rat. I was caught between taking or leaving it since we were a family.

She forced me and, reluctantly, I took.

My empty pockets were now full. I walked with my shoulders very high amongst my wretched friends. I could kill someone and pay.

What a day! What joy! What pride!

Eating cooked food again in our house was a far-fetched dream. But for how long? God alone knows.
